

50 for $50K Abolition Campaign

People of faith can make a difference! The National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty (NCADP) is seeking fifty or more faith communities that will together pledge $50,000 each year until capital punishment is abolished. Such a stable base of support will enable NCADP to provide the leadership needed to abolish the death penalty state by state across our nation.

Some congregations will pledge $100 or $250 each year. Others will send $2,000 or more to NCADP annually. Some take their pledge from their budget while others take up a special collection. The important thing is to put our faith into action. How much can YOUR community of faith pledge?
